Overview

Created by statute in 1984, the Criminal Justice Council (CJC) is an independent body committed to leading the criminal justice system through a collaborative approach. CJC continuously strives for an effective system that is fair, efficient and accountable, representing all areas of the criminal justice system and the community. CJC awards competitive funding to all facets of the criminal justice community from various U.S. Department of Justice grants, as well as discretionary grants awarded to the State. In Fiscal Year 2023, CJC awarded $17.2 million to 201 programs and continued to administer an additional $24.8 million in other active grants.

The Criminal Justice Council supports the Domestic Violence Coordinating Council (DVCC), which was legislatively created to improve Delaware’s response to domestic violence and sexual assault. Much of the work is guided through 11 active committees of the DVCC, 6 Family Justice Center Work Groups, the Domestic Violence Intervention Certification Panel, and the Fatal Incident Review Team. In Fiscal Year 2023, the DVCC facilitated 3 virtual educational workshops on domestic violence for 30 participants, 1 virtual workshop on teen dating violence for 25 high school students, 1 virtual training on domestic violence for 32 medical professionals, 1 in-person training on teen dating violence for 450 high school students, and 1 in-person training on strangulation to 96 law enforcement professionals. The DVCC also provided 5 resource and awareness-raising tables: 1 for 1300 high school students, 1 for college students, and 3 at conferences for professionals in victim advocacy, substance abuse, mental health, and the courts.
