

Identifying FAIN (Federal Award Identification Number) on usaspending.gov

Log in to: <http://usaspending.gov>

- Select: PRIME AWARD ADVANCED SEARCH.

The screenshot shows the homepage of usaspending.gov. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for Home, News, Summaries, Trends, Data Feeds, Opportunities, Sub-award Documents, and FAQs. On the right side of the menu, there are links for Feedback, Help, and a SHARE button with social media icons. The main header features the USA SPENDING .GOV logo with a magnifying glass over the dollar sign and the tagline "Government spending at your fingertips". Below the logo is a search bar with a "Search" button. An arrow points to the search bar, and below it are two tabs: "Prime Award Advanced Search" and "Sub-award Advanced Search". A note below the search bar reads: "NOTE: You must click here for very important D&B information." The page is divided into three main sections: "Popular Requests" on the left, "Spending Trends" in the center, and "What's new" on the right. The "Popular Requests" section lists categories like Gulf Oil Spill Contracts, Construction Contracts, Housing Assistance, Student Assistance, Research and Development Contracts, and Higher Education Grants. The "Spending Trends" section contains a scatter plot of Grant Spending vs. Contract Spending over time. The "What's new" section includes a sign-up form for updates and a yellow sticky note that says "Now tracking sub award data".
